

Water Qualitydata

This dataset contains the daily water quality data from 48 stations located in Indiana (Data source: SJRWI). The main purpose of this dataset is to provide with the count of different variables that indicate the quality of water at a particular station. Data at each location can be plotted or downloaded.